

Participant Eligibility

Employers and Individuals
Element	Initial Application	Continuation	Verification
Enrollment Period	Continuous	Annual Renewal
Initial Criteria	Small Employer -Principal place of business in Florida -Average 1-50 employees during preceding year -If an employer was not in existence throughout the preceding calendar year, the average number of employees reasonably expected to be employed during the current year averages 1-50	-If a participating small employer exceeds 50 employees after initial enrollment it may continue to be treated as a small employer	-Self-attestation of employer -List of other eligible employers maintained by the corporation
	Municipality -having populations of fewer than 50,000 residents
	County -Local government agency or school board in a county designated as fiscally constrained
	Statutory Rural Hospital
	State of Florida
	Unaffiliated Individual -A person or family who participates in the program but is not eligible for payroll deduction through a participating employer including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • State of Florida retiree • Medicaid participants who select the opt-out provisions of reform • Participating employees when 18 months of COBRA ends • Participating employees who separate from employer with no COBRA option • Makes premium payments through a method other than payroll deduction 		-Self-attestation by the individual or system history of prior enrollment
Continuation Criteria		Active enrollment and payment of applicable premiums.	Receipt of timely payment
Agreement Requirement	Agree to Terms and Conditions	Agree to any modified Terms and Conditions	Electronic or written signature